WEST VIRGINIA HISTORY

A Quarterly Magazine

Vol. 21
Oct. 1959 –
July 1960

CECILE R. GOODALL, Editor
KYLE MCCORMICK, Managing Editor

Published quarterly by the State Department of Archives and History, Charleston, West Virginia

JARRETT PRINTING COMPANY, CHARLESTON, W. VA.

Contents of Volume XXI

NUMBER 1—OCTOBER, 1959

The Right Honourable Thomsa Lord Fairfax and his Swan Pond Estate, by George B. Folk 5

Boom and Driving Days on Coal River and in the Adirondacks by Harry F. Jackson 13

Women in West Virginia's Scheme of Education, by Roy C. Woods 22

The Story of Iron Mining in West Virginia, by Kyle McCormick 35

DOCUMENTS:

West Virginia Estate Settlements (Ohio County), abstracted by Ross B. Johnston 40

State History as Featured by the Press 52

Recent Accessions to the State Department of Archives and History 55

President's Page, by Boyd B. Stutler 58

Contributors 61

NUMBER 2—JANUARY, 1960

"Porte Crayon's" Quarrel with Virginia, by Cecil Eby 65

Bishop Francis Asbury in West Virginia, by Lawrence Sherwood 76

Early Oil Development in West Virginia, by Bernard Gainer 84

General John D. Imboden, by Haviland Abbott 88

DOCUMENTS:

West Virginia Estate Settlements (Greenbrier County), abstracted by Ross B. Johnston 123

State History as Featured by the Press 130

Recent Accessions to the State Department of Archives and History 135

President's Report, by Boyd Stutler 139

Minutes of the Annual Meeting, Charleston, Oct. 10, 1959 144

Secretary's Page, by Kyle McCormick 150

Contributors 152

NUMBER 3—APRIL, 1960

Opinions of President Lincoln and His Cabinet on Statehood for Western Virginia, 1862-1863, by Isaiah Alfonso Woodward 158
Military Events in West Virginia During the Civil War, 1861-1865, by Allen W. Jones 186
Charleston's Railroad, by Kyle McCormick 197

DOCUMENTS:
West Virginia Estate Settlements (Greenbrier County, from Kayser to Wylie), abstracted by Ross B. Johnston 200
State History as Featured by the Press 207
Recent Accessions to the State Department of Archives and History 211
President's Page, by James L. Hupp 216
Secretary's Page, by Kyle McCormick 220
Contributors 221
Membership in the West Virginia State Historical Society 222

NUMBER 4—JULY, 1960

The History of Sweet Springs, Monroe County, West Virginia, by Barbara Ruth Kidd 233
First Important West Virginia Artist Painted the Old West, by J. Arthur Butcher 269
Slavery in Present West Virginia in 1860, by Barbara Louise Emmerth 275
Recent Accessions to the State Department of Archives and History 278
President's Page 281
Secretary's Page 286
Contributors 288

377446